2019 Business Retention & Development – Supplemental Questions

The Business Retention and Development Committee (BRaD) advises the City Council on business matters including promoting collaboration and communication between the City and the local business community, how best the City can promote economic activity, and gathering information regarding the needs and priorities of businesses. The BRaD meets the first Monday of each month at 8:00 am. Terms are three years. You must be a resident of Louisville or own or operate a business in Louisville to apply.

PLEASE PRINT OR TYPE YOUR ANSWERS TO ALL OF THE FOLLOWING QUESTIONS in the space provided and return this questionnaire with your application to the City Clerk's Office (749 Main Street) or email it to MeredythM@LouisvilleCO.gov.

Please limit all answers to 400 words.

1. Briefly explain your interest in serving on the Business Retention & Development Committee and what your connection is to the Louisville business community?

2. What do you believe to be one of the biggest challenges facing businesses today?

3. In what ways do you think the City of Louisville can be of more assistance to the business community?

4. APPLYING FOR REAPPOINTMENT ONLY: Should you be reappointed, what would you like to see the BRaD accomplish in your next term?
